Trestle Board Message from the East

Brothers

Brethren, as the year end nears and we look back at all we have to be thankful for and the many blessings that we have to look forward to it is extremely satisfying to know that while we have not always accomplished everything that we wanted, still it is a great feeling to know the year has been good.

The officers in line are to be commended for stepping up and doing the work they were prepared to do. The last 2 meetings were step up nights due to the Master being on a trip to the western slope for a "wine tour" of the wineries around Grand Junction. The next meeting was when the master was on a cruise with Research lodge. It seems there are always conflicts of one kind or another.

The positive things that occurred are we did have a great "Pancake Breakfast" thanks to all the brothers that participated and help make it a real success, and work has progressed on the Lodge building so that modernization is taking place. The temple board is to be congratulated on all their hard work.

When you try to think of all the brothers that helped make the year a success, it is hard.

Starting with the Secretary, WB Ashley, the Sr. Warden, WB John Porter, the Treasurer, WB John Warren, Jr. Warden, Sr. Deacon, Jr. Deacon, Ray Rogalla, Bro. Fred Shaw, W.B. Greg Atencio, brother Rene Dees, WB Marvin Salmans, WB. Wayne Carter, and a Special thanks to WB Phill Coomber, who we miss since he moved out of our area.

I'm sure I probably overlooked a lot of the brothers, but W.B. Roy Weingarten and WB Jurgen Hartman have been valued members whose input has helped make our Lodge what it is. The lodge is fortunate to have the greatest line officers and we can all feel confident and secure in the knowledge that masonry has yet to see the best of all that is offered.

Our December meeting will be the election and installation of the new officers.

Wishing you and yours the best of everything for the coming year and the Holliday season, I remain fraternally thankful and appreciative,

Douglas Cline, PM
