Trestle Board Message from the East

Brothers

Our Junior Warden will conduct our next stated meeting and we would like all of the brethren to share and enjoy the meeting.

The Worshipful Master and Senior Warden are going to be out of town and it is really rewarding to know that the line officers are proficient and able to step up in what amounts to a double step up. Thank you in advance for all your help and consideration.

I have still not given up on the idea of a "Table Lodge" or a "Rusty Nail Degree" however, the time is running short since we will have our election in December, and it will be at the will and pleasure of the newly elected Worshipful Master as to when and where the installation will be.

It is very possible that we will have some "Specials" in the near future, weather permitting. Please enjoy each and every day, and remember that it takes only 13 muscles for a smile and over 60 for a frown. May brotherly love prevail?

All are welcome and we look forward to your attendance and participation.

Fraternally and Sincerely,

W.Bro. Douglas Cline, P.M.
